i++) Greetings

i++) World of Warcraft with Jason

- Patch 7.1.5 should be around the corner.
- Ronda Rousey & Vin Diesel are WoW friends.
- Legion Dev Q&A - Ion Hazzikostas
 - Change to secondary stats should ultimately not hurt specs that heavily rely on Crit. The crit you lose will be offset by primary stat gains.
 - 15 item level upgrades should be blindly equipable as an upgrade.
 - Raid groups should have the same or slightly easier time after patch 7.1.5 drops.
 - Class changes coming so you may need to tweak your rotations or change your talents a bit.
 - Warlocks aren't getting updated with this patch. It'll happen later this expansion.
 - Shadow priests are getting a lot of attention.
 - Havoc Demon Hunter - tweaks so havoc specialization doesn't feel like you have to go with momentum build.
 - Balance druid's legendary, The Emerald Dreamcatcher, helm is getting nerfed to help equal out legendary powers. Spec is getting buffed to compensate so dps shouldn't be changed. YAY!
 - Nighthold sets have 6 items with pick 4 so you can have more options to get the set bonus.
 - Outlaw Rogues Roll the Bones will not have the RNG lowered. Slice and Dice will get improved for those that don't like Roll the Bones. Maybe adding more haste.
 - Strong single target heals for Holy paladins is the outlook.
 - Working on fixing long loading screen issues for some.
