i++) Greetings

i++) World of Warcraft with Jason

- Patch 7.1.5 has dropped. I haven't brawled yet but will!
- Upcoming Class Tuning Hotfixes. Mages, DK, Pally nerfed while everyone else either wasn't modified or got a buff to dps.
- Developer Q&A with Paul Kubit
 - Crafted gear has a limited duration.
 - 7.1.5 added some things for Engineering and other professions, new armor may be in future patch.
 - 7.2 will add new recipes to primary and secondary professions.
 - Brawler's guild bosses are set to fairly static difficulty, increasing as you progress. Early bosses should be approachable for most players with increasing challenges as you progress.
 - No more bosses this expansion.
 - Talk of healer brawler challenges possible in future.
 - New engineering goggles are highest tier crafted items.
 - Goggles are BoE.
 - Talent tomes are too expensive and team will look into lowering costs possibly.
 - Happy with how obliteration is working. Cost to unlock may be reduced in future.
 - Skinning mobs multi-tap is something team still wants to do.
 - Cracking down on bots which is causing gathered materials to increase in price.
 - Patch 7.1.5 increased the chance to get recipes with Nomi. Also I found out that recipes you unlock have hidden pre-requirements which is you need to know certain recipes before you can unlock a recipe that uses it. Go searching for the vendor recipes before giving Nomi more food.
 - No endless grinds with archaeology now which is intentional and hope to make it better in patch 7.2.
 - 7.2 will be coming to PTR soon.
 - Not removing dungeon requirements for professions.
- Legendary upgrades will happen via a quest after Nighthold is released.
