i++) World of Warcraft with Jason

- For all you HotS players Heroes Nexus will be shutting down March 1st.
- China has new regulations concerning online games which include revealing the draw probabilities of items from them. We may learn what the chances are of getting cards in games like Hearthstone and rare skins and emotes in Overwatch.
- Call of the Scarab in Wow ends today. Didn't see anything you could earn from it so probably not doing it.
- Patch 7.2 new legendaries are available for view on mmo-champion. There are also a bunch of mounts included with that patch.
- Definitely try picking up the items for The Lunar Festival going on right now! Get that dragon head, body and tail!
- 1/24 class tuning changes will be released
- 7.2 looks to have new order hall traits
 - Tier 7 column 1, new random ability troop that counters Minions, Spells or Hazards and increases success by +30%.
 - Tier 7 column 2, Increase the # of champions you can have active by 1.
 - Tier 8 column 1, All new Relics are able to grant a Rank increase to a second Artifact Trait.
- It also looks like we'll be getting class mounts once we finish our class hall story line. The mounts look fantastic. Shamans get a wind elemental to ride! Demon hunters get an armored gargoyle. Mages get a disc, hehe.

- Tier 20 armor sets can be viewed over at mmo-champion. I will be working to obtain that druid set! The hunter one is amusing. I also liked the Monk, Rogue, Shaman, Warrior and I really, really liked Warlock.
