i++) World of Warcraft with Jason

- Patch 7.2 will have new druid animations!!!! They're looking nice. Lunar strike now looks to hit multiple targets and is a blue energy beam rather than a fire beam. All the lunar spells remind me of the arcane mage spell looks which make more sense. I also like the changes to efflorescence and tranquility.
- Patch 7.2 will also unlock new artifact traits which will be available if you're weapon is at least lvl 35 and will show up after completing a quest chain. When patch 7.2 is release all artifact power over 7.2 will be refunded and you can then spend that artifact power on empowering your weapons new traits rather than the extra talent buff that increase damage/healing/damage reduction by a set amount. We should see these new artifact traits in PTR next week.
- Upcoming trinket changes where a lot of trinkets are getting buffed.
- Overwatch skins for Chinese New Year event.
